

The “Life Together as a Congregation” Seminar

A congregational Mutual Ministry Committee is formed to tend the shared relationship of pastor, people and mission as together they fulfill their congregation’s ministry.

The work of the Congregation’s Mutual Ministry Committee

- Is mission oriented
- Builds on a broad vision of ministry and fosters a healthy practice of spirituality
- Makes use of a small group approach to develop mutuality
- Carries out the vital ministry of scanning the congregational response in support of its stated mission

The Mutual Ministry Committee holds mutuality and ministry in creative communication, utilizing a small group approach.

This seminar will describe the exciting work of the Mutual Ministry Committee and provide practical ideas to use in your congregation.

The Rev. Richard Bruesehoff

Pastor Dick Bruesehoff currently serves as Director for Lifelong Learning of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. He works primarily with the network of Lifelong Learning Partners (continuing education centers) in the United States, Mexico, Europe and the Middle East and with those who support the leadership of pastors, associates in ministry, diaconal ministers, deaconesses and elected congregational leaders. Dick previously served as Assistant to the Bishop in the Northwest Synod of Wisconsin, pastor of Immanuel Lutheran Church (Clayton, WI), Trinity Lutheran Church (Appleton, WI) and on the staff of the Wisconsin Council of Churches. Dick is co-author of two books, Clergy Renewal: The Alban Sabbatical Planning Guide (Alban Institute) and Pastor and People: Making Mutual Ministry Work (Augsburg Fortress). He and his spouse Naomi are the parents of two adult children.
