The Rev. Richard Bruesehoff

Pastor Dick Bruesehoff currently serves as Director for Lifelong Learning of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. He works primarily with the network of Lifelong Learning Partners (continuing education providers) in the United States, Mexico, Europe and the Middle East and with those who support the leadership of pastors, associates in ministry, diaconal ministers, deaconesses and elected congregational leaders. Dick previously served as Assistant to the Bishop in the Northwest Synod of Wisconsin, pastor of Immanuel Lutheran Church (Clayton, WI), Trinity Lutheran Church (Appleton, WI) and on the staff of the Wisconsin Council of Churches. Dick is co-author of two books, Clergy Renewal: The Alban Sabbatical Planning Guide (Alban Institute) and Pastor and People: Making Mutual Ministry Work (Augsburg Fortress). He and his spouse Naomi, are the parents of two adult children.

The Rev. Susan M. Lang

Pastor Sue Lang serves the church through her coaching and consulting ministry, RevWriter Resources, LLC, an ELCA Lifelong Learning Partner. Prior to receiving her call as a consultant, Sue served in as an intentional interim pastor, a campus pastor, and a parish pastor. She is the author of numerous books including, Our Community: Dealing with Conflict in Our Congregation; Who Is My Neighbor: The Stories of Ruth and Jonah, and the Book of Faith Bible Study on the Gospel of John. She is co-author of Pastor and People: Making Mutual Ministry Work and Welcome Forward: A Field Guide to Global Travel. She and her husband, Tom, are parents of two young adult women.
